

MASTER CLASS Govind Namdev

CHAHUMUKH
12 Feb 2020
2.00 pm

Govind Namdev was born in Sagar, Madhya Pradesh. He received his preliminary education in Sagar and completed the rest in Delhi. He received graduate degree from Delhi University, A three year Diploma in acting from National School of Drama (1975-78), did an apprenticeship from National School of Drama's repertory company and then went on to work as their professional actor (1978-89).

He has an honour to work with eminent personalities of the world that include the pioneer of Indian theatre, Guru Prof. I. Alkazi, Prof. Fitz Benenitz (Germany), Prof.

Richard Schechner (America), Barry John (England), B.V. Karanth, Satyadev Dubey, K.N. Pannikar, Mohan Maharishi, Bhanu Bharati, M.K. Raina, Amal Allana and so on.

Govind Namdev is one of the majorly popular actors of Indian Theatre. He has acted twice in the world famous Berlin Theatre festival (Germany) and performed successfully in countries like England & Poland. After 14 years of sustained engagement with National School of Drama (1975-89), He entered the world of films in the year 1990. He has played significant roles in more than 100 successful, popular and memorable films such as Bandit Queen, Prem Granth, Virasat, Sarfrosh, Kachche Dhage, Godmother, Satya, Sarkar Raj, Oh my God and a number of others, for which he has been appreciated and felicitated with awards.

Currently he acts in films, direct plays and makes a constant effort to share his experiential learnings with students through education and training.

